WEALTH SECURITIES, INC.

DATA PRIVACY MANUAL

I. Introduction

This Privacy Manual of Wealth Securities, Inc. (“Company”) is hereby adopted in compliance with Republic Act No. 10173 entitled “An Act Protecting Individual Personal Information in Information and Communication Systems in the Government and the Private Sector, Creating for this Purpose a National Privacy Commission, and for other Purposes” or otherwise known as the “Data Privacy Act of 2012”, its Implementing Rules and Regulations, relevant policies, and issuances of the National Privacy Commission (“NPC”).

The Data Privacy Act (“DPA”) and its Implementing Rules and Regulations (“IRR”) provide the following:

1. Protection of individual’s right to privacy of his personal information and sensitive personal information (“Personal Data”) while ensuring the free flow of information in order to promote innovation and growth;
2. Regulation in the processing of personal information and, in certain cases, processing of sensitive personal information and privileged information;
3. Creation of the NPC tasked to implement the provisions of the DPA and its IRR and to ensure country’s compliance with international standards for data protection;
4. Security of personal information through the implementation of reasonable and appropriate organizational, physical, and technical measures intended for the protection of personal and sensitive personal information.

This Company respects, values, and protects the data privacy rights of individuals and ensures that all personal information and sensitive personal information (“Personal Data”) collected are processed in adherence to the general principles of transparency, legitimate purpose, and proportionality. The Company collects Personal Data from the following:

- a) Company’s directors, stockholders, officials, employees, interns, on-the-job trainees, agents, and consultant/s;
- b) Clients;
- c) Banks’ representatives;

- d) Directors, officials, and pertinent employees of (i) Philippine Depository & Trust Corp. (“PDTC”); (ii) Securities Clearing Corporation of the Philippines (“SCCP”); (iii) The Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc. (“PSE”); (iv) Capital Markets Integrity Corporation (“CMIC”); (v) Philippine Association of Securities Brokers Dealers, Inc. (“PASBDI”); (vi) Securities Investors Protection Fund (“SIPF”); (vii) listed companies and other corporations or entities that the Company may deal with; (viii) Trading Participants (“TP”); (ix) Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”); (x) Anti-Money Laundering Council and its Secretariat; (xi) National Privacy Commission (“NPC”); (xii) Bureau of Internal Revenue (“BIR”); (xiii) other government agencies; and (xiv) representatives of trade

This Privacy Manual provides the Company’s data protection and security measures and may serve as guide in exercising rights of a data subject under the DPA.

II. Definition of Terms

The DPA and its IRR define the following:

- a) “Data Subject” – refers to an individual whose personal, sensitive personal or privileged information is processed by the organization. It may refer to officers, employees, consultants, and clients of this organization.
- b) “Personal Information” – refers to any information whether recorded in a material form or not, from which the identity of an individual is apparent or can be reasonably and directly ascertained by the entity holding the information, or when put together with other information would directly and certainly identify an individual.

Examples of Personal information are: name, home or office address, email address, birth date, birth place, telephone number, place of work, gender, location of an individual at a particular time, IP address, country of citizenship, citizenship status, payroll and benefits information, and other identifying information.

- c) “Personal Data” refers to both personal information and sensitive personal information.
- d) “Personal data breach” refers to a breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure of, or access to, personal data transmitted, stored, or otherwise processed;
- e) “Personal information processor” refers to any natural or juridical person qualified to act as such under this Act to whom a personal information controller may outsource the processing of personal data pertaining to a data subject.

- f) “Processing” - refers to any operation or any set of operations performed upon personal information including, but not limited to, the collection, recording, organization, storage, updating or modification, retrieval, consultation, use, consolidation, blocking, erasure or destruction of data.
- g) “Privileged information” - refers to any and all forms of data which under the Rules of Court and other pertinent laws constitute privileged communication.
- h) “Security incident” is an event or occurrence that affects or tends to affect data protection, or may compromise the availability, integrity and confidentiality of personal data. It includes incidents that would result to a personal data breach, if not for safeguards that have been put in place;
- i) “Sensitive personal information”- refers to personal information:
 - (1) About an individual’s race, ethnic origin, marital status, age, color, and religious, philosophical or political affiliations;
 - (2) About an individual’s health, education, genetic or sexual life of a person, or to any proceeding for any offense committed or alleged to have been committed by such person, the disposal of such proceedings, or the sentence of any court in such proceedings;
 - (3) Issued by government agencies peculiar to an individual which includes, but not limited to, social security numbers, previous or current health records, licenses or its denials, suspension or revocation, and tax returns; and
 - (4) Specifically established by an executive order or an act of Congress to be kept classified.

Examples of sensitive personal information are: banks and credit/debit card numbers, websites visited, materials downloaded, any other information reflecting preferences and behaviour of an individual, grievance information, and leave of absence reason.

III. Scope and Limitations

All personnel of the Company, regardless of the type of employment or contractual arrangement, must comply with the terms set out in this Privacy Manual. This Privacy Manual is an internal issuance and is meant for the use and application of the Company’s staff or personnel and is not intended for publication.

IV. Processing of Personal Data

 - 1) Collect information to identify the processing operations, activities, measures, projects, programs, or systems of the Company, and maintain a record thereof;
 - 2) Analyze and check the compliance of processing activities, including the issuance of security clearances to and compliance by third-party service providers;
 - 3) Inform, advise, and issue recommendations to the Company;
 - 4) Ascertain renewal of accreditations or certifications necessary to maintain the required standards in Personal Data processing; and
 - 5) advise the Company as regards the necessity of executing a Data Sharing Agreement with third parties, and ensure its compliance with the law;
- b. Ensure the conduct of Privacy Impact Assessment (“PIA”) relative to activities, measures, projects, programs or systems of the Company;
- c. Advise the Company regarding complaints and/or the exercise by data subjects of their rights (e.g. requests for information, clarifications, rectification or deletion of personal data);
- d. Ensure proper data breach and security incident management by the Company, including the latter’s preparation and submission to the NPC of reports and other documentation concerning security incidents or data breaches within the prescribed period;
- e. Inform and cultivate awareness on privacy and data protection within the Company, including all relevant laws, rules and regulations, and issuances of the NPC;
- f. Advocate for the development, review and/or revision of policies, guidelines, projects and/or programs of the Company relating to privacy and data protection by adopting a privacy by design approach;
- g. Serve as the contact person of the Company vis-à-vis data subjects, the NPC, and other authorities in all matters concerning data privacy or security issues or concerns;
- h. Cooperate, coordinate, and seek advice of the NPC regarding matters concerning data privacy and security; and
- i. Perform other duties and tasks that may be assigned by the Company that will further the interests of data privacy and security and uphold the rights of the data subjects.

3. Conduct of trainings, recording and documentation of compliance

The Company shall sponsor a mandatory training on data privacy and security at least once a year. For personnel directly involved in the processing of Personal Data, the management, through the DPO, shall ensure their attendance and participation in relevant trainings and orientations, as often as necessary.

The Company will keep a recording and documentation of activities carried out by the DPO, or the Company itself, to ensure compliance with the DPA, its IRR and other relevant policies or issuances of the NPC.

4. Conduct of Privacy Impact Assessment

The Company shall conduct a PIA relative to all activities, projects and systems involving the processing of Personal Data. The PIA may be conducted on a specific project or system when deemed to be necessary. The Company may outsource the conduct of the PIA to a third party.

5. Duty of Confidentiality

All employees and officers of the Company shall be required to sign confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement. All Company's employees and officers with access to Personal Data shall operate and hold Personal Data under strict confidentiality if the same is not intended for public disclosure or unless such disclosure is required under the law, rules and regulations of the SEC, CMIC, or PSE or with the consent of the Data Subject.

6. Review of Privacy Manual

This Privacy Manual shall be reviewed and evaluated annually. Privacy and security policies and practices within the Company shall be updated to remain consistent with current data privacy best practices.

B. Physical Security Measures

1. Format of Personal Data

Personal data in the custody of the Company are in digital or electronic format and paper-based or physical format.

2. Storage type and location

All Personal Data in paper-based documents being processed by the Company are stored in designated storage areas or kept in locked filing cabinets while the digital or electronic files are safely stored in computers provided and installed by the Company with appropriate passwords which are changed on a regular basis.

3. Access procedure of Company's personnel

Only authorized personnel shall be allowed inside the data room. For this purpose, they shall each be given a duplicate of the key to the room. Other personnel may be granted access to the room upon filing of an access request form with the Data Protection Officer and the latter's approval thereof.

4. Monitoring and limitation of access

Physical access is restricted to authorized personnel and any visitor is escorted by an authorized individual while in the office or secure area. All authorized personnel who seek to access the stored Personal Data must fill out and register access details in a logbook. They shall indicate the date, time, duration and purpose of each access.

5. Design of office space/work station

For purposes of ensuring privacy of Personal Data, the computers used by Company's personnel are positioned with considerable spaces between them to maintain privacy and protect the processing of Personal Data. A nightly closing protocol requires employees and officials of the Company to log out of all computers.

6. Persons involved in processing, and their duties and responsibilities

Persons involved in processing shall always maintain confidentiality and integrity of Personal Data. They are not allowed to bring their own gadgets or storage device of any form when entering the data storage room. Moreover, all employees and officers of the Company with access to Personal Data shall operate and hold Personal Data under strict confidentiality if the same is not intended for public disclosure or unless such disclosure is required under the law or its rules and regulations or rules and regulations of SEC, CMIC, PSE, or SCCP.

7. Modes of transfer of personal data within the organization, or to third parties

Transfers of personal data via electronic mail shall use a secure email facility with encryption of the data, including any or all attachments. Facsimile technology shall not be used for transmitting documents containing personal data, unless with the consent of the data subjects.

8. Retention and disposal procedure

The Company shall retain the Personal Data for a period allowed by law, rules and regulations. Upon expiration of such period, all physical and electronic copies of the Personal Data shall be destroyed and disposed of using secure technology.

C. Technical Security Measures

The Company shall implement technical security measures to make sure that there are appropriate and sufficient safeguards to secure the processing of Personal Data, particularly the computer network in place, including encryption and authentication processes that control and limit access. They include the following, among others:

1. Monitoring for security breaches

The Company may use an intrusion detection system to monitor security breaches and alert the Company of any attempt to interrupt or disturb the system. The Company installs anti-virus software to computers and laptops that regularly access the internet and uses firewalls and anti-virus/anti-spyware software to protect systems that are accessible from the internet. The systems that are exposed to the Internet such as the web servers and their software or servers supporting sensitive applications are removed or disabled of unnecessary services and applications and with properly configured user authentication. The Company regularly reads the firewall logs to monitor security breaches or any unauthorized attempt to access the network of the Company.

2. Security features of the software/s and application/s used

The Company reviews and evaluates software applications before the installation thereof in computers and devices of the Company to ensure the compatibility of security features with overall operations and to ensure privacy protection of Personal Data stored in said computers.

3. Process for regularly testing, assessment and evaluation of effectiveness of security measures

The Company reviews security policies, conduct vulnerability assessments, and perform penetration testing within the Company on regular schedule to be prescribed by the appropriate department or unit.

4. Encryption, authentication process, and other technical security measures that control and limit access to personal data

The Company's personnel with access to Personal data shall verify his or her identity using a secure encrypted link and multi-level authentication.

V. Breach and Security Incidents

1. Creation of a Data Breach Response Team

A Data Breach Response Team comprising of five (5) officers and employees - Kevin Neil A. Sy, Ruby S. Tan, Lita J. Dulfo, Armer B. Caguioa and Samuel N. Jurado shall be responsible for ensuring immediate action in the event of a security incident or Personal Data breach. The team shall conduct an initial assessment of the incident or breach in order to ascertain the nature and extent thereof. It shall also execute measures to mitigate the adverse effects of the incident or breach.

2. Measures to prevent and minimize occurrence of breach and security incidents

The Company shall regularly conduct a Privacy Impact Assessment to identify risks in the processing system and monitor for security breaches and vulnerability scanning of computer networks. Personnel directly involved in the processing of Personal Data must attend trainings and seminars for capacity building. There must also be a periodic review of policies and procedures being implemented in the organization.

3. Procedure for recovery and restoration of personal data

The Company shall always maintain a backup file for all Personal Data under its custody. In the event of a security incident or data breach, it shall always compare the backup with the affected file to determine the presence of any inconsistencies or alterations resulting from the incident or breach.

4. Notification protocol

The Head of the Data Breach Response Team shall inform the management of the need to notify the NPC and the data subjects affected by the incident or breach within the period prescribed by law. Management may decide to delegate the actual notification to the head of the Data Breach Response Team. Such notification shall be done within seventy-two (72) hours upon knowledge of, or when there is reasonable belief by the Company that a Personal Data breach requiring notification has occurred. A breach shall be subject to notification requirements under the following conditions:

- a) The compromised data involves sensitive personal information or other information that may be used to enable identity fraud;
- b) There is reason to believe that the information may have been acquired by an unauthorized person; and
- c) The unauthorized acquisition is likely to give rise to a real risk of serious harm to any affected data subject.

The report shall contain the following:

- a) Description of the nature of the breach;
- b) Sensitive personal information possibly involved;
- c) Measures taken by the entity to address the breach;

- d) Measures taken to reduce the harm or negative consequences of the breach; and
- e) Name of the DPO or representatives of the Company, including their contact details, from whom the data subject can obtain additional information about the breach, and any assistance to be provided to the affected data subjects.

5. Documentation and reporting procedure of security incidents or a Personal Data breach

The Data Breach Response Team shall prepare a detailed documentation of all security incidents and Personal Data breaches, including those not covered by the notification requirements. In the case of Personal Data breaches, a report shall include the facts surrounding an incident, the effects of such incident, and the remedial actions taken by the Company. In other security incidents not involving Personal Data, a report containing aggregated data shall constitute sufficient documentation. These reports shall be made available when requested by the NPC. A general summary of the reports shall be submitted to the NPC annually.

VI. Inquiries and Complaints

Every data subject has the right to reasonable access to his or her Personal Data being processed by the personal information controller or personal information processor. Other available rights include: (1) right to dispute the inaccuracy or error in the Personal Data; (2) right to request the suspension, withdrawal, blocking, removal or destruction of Personal Data; and (3) right to complain and be indemnified for any damages sustained due to inaccurate, incomplete, outdated, false, unlawfully obtained or unauthorized use of Personal Data. Accordingly, there must be a procedure for inquiries and complaints that will specify the means through which concerns, documents, or forms submitted to the organization shall be received and acted upon. The data subject may write to the Company at office@wealthsec.com to discuss the inquiry, together with their contact details for reference.

Complaints shall be filed in three (3) printed copies or sent to office@wealthsec.com . The concerned department or unit of the Company shall confirm with complainant its receipt of the complaint.

VII. Effectivity

This Privacy Manual takes effect on 10 January 2019 until revoked or amended.
